AFFIDAVIT ON COMPLAINT
(O.R.C. 2935.09)

STATE OF OHIO, MERCER COUNTY, SS:

I, Connor J. Burr, do hereby state that I am employed at the Celina Police Department. The following did occur:

On August 16, 2025, at approximately 11:42 A.M, I Celina Police Department Officers were dispatched to a business parking lot, located at 1950 Havemann Road, in the city of Celina, Ohio. Someone called to report seeing a female trying to unlock a vehicle with a knife. Dispatch ran the license plate through LEADS/NCIC and it came back as being entered as a stolen vehicle from the city of Saint Mary's, Ohio. Dispatch also gave responding officers a description of the vehicle and the female standing beside it.

When I arrived at the parking lot, I located the female standing by the described vehicle, with the door standing open. I ordered the female to the front of my car, where she was detained. I identified the female as being Tasha N. Cornwell and her date of birth is July 29, 1983.

I read Cornwell her Miranda rights. Cornwell said that she knew the owner and mentioned him by name. She denied it being stolen and said that she had permission. Ptl. Poppe had arrived on scene. He contacted the Saint Mary's Police Department and confirmed that this vehicle, a 2001 Ford Explorer Trac, with license plate number NAM and vehicle identification number 1FMZU77E91UC04596 was a stolen vehicle.

The vehicle was towed, photographed and inventoried and placed into the Celina Police Department impound. Cornwell was incarcerated into the Mercer County Detention Facility.
